

Basic Health™

2012 Open Enrollment Notice

Any requests to change your health plan or add family members must be made by

This is not a bill. Keep a copy for your records. If you need more information on Basic Health benefits, costs, guidelines, or the wait list, visit www.basicealth.hca.wa.gov or call 1-800-660-9840.

- If you want to change your health plan, you can make the change online at www.basicealth.hca.wa.gov, by calling 1-800-660-9840, or by checking the box next to the health plan below and returning this form to Basic Health, PO Box 42688, Olympia, WA 98504-2688.
- Due to budget limitations, you can add family members to your account for family size only but Basic Health cannot enroll them for coverage. Requests to add family members will also place the individual on our wait list. Once space is available, we will offer coverage to those individuals. For exceptions to the wait list, visit www.basicealth.hca.wa.gov or call 1-800-660-9840.

What is open enrollment?

It's the one time each year when you can choose a new health plan. It's also when we notify you about changes to your coverage for the next year.

Changes to your Basic Health benefits

The following change to benefits take effect January 1, 2012:

- Members will no longer be subject to the pre-existing conditions limitation.

There is no increase in premiums or cost-sharing for 2012. Some premiums may decrease. Please see the other side for your 2012 premium.
